
Pug of the Month "Dolores"

Ch. Caravelle's Total Eclipse

Date of birth:	August 2, 1999
Owner:	Bette Reese
Breeder:	Bette Reese
Sire:	Ch. Webb's Texas Tornado ROM
Dam:	Ch. Caravelle's Dorothy of Duxbury
Titles:	AKC Champion
Favorite food:	Any meat grilled on the BBQ
Favorite toy:	Huge stuffed Octopus
Likes:	Sleeping in the sunshine
Dislikes:	Sharing her toys, treats or bed with sisters
Home companions:	Dolores lives with her half sisters, Raisin, Millie & Allie
E-mail Dolores at:	CaravellePugs@direcway.com

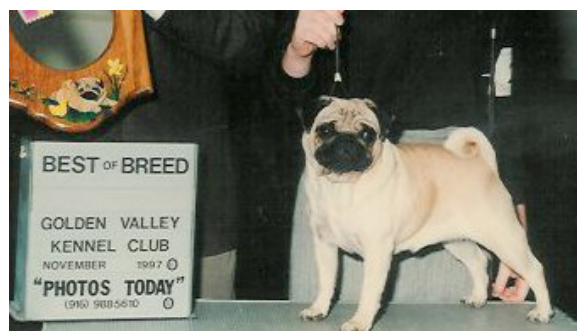

Bette fell in love with a friend's litter of pug puppies in 1985; less than a year later she bought her first show pug. Bette purchased her first black pug in 1995 and he is the foundation sire to all of her black pugs.

About the Owner:

Besides being owned by pugs, Bette and her husband own and operate a small cattle ranch on the west side of the Central Valley of Calif. Bette works for a veterinarian and is a tech for ICSB (International Canine Semen Bank).

Dolores' sire: Ch. Webb's Texas Tornado ROM

Dolores' dam: Ch. Caravelle's Dorothy of Duxbury

Dolores' son, Ch. Caravelle's Mogen David (co-owned)

-Ch. Caravelle's Music of the Night-Dolores' daughter, Ella finished her championship in March 2006, which included two Group Placements. Her litter sister is currently being shown, following in the family's winning tradition.

